Description: The purpose of this presentation is to educate those in commercial construction of the advantages of aluminum windows and doors (pre-glazed) in commercial applications or commercial projects.

Learning Objectives: At the end of this program, participants will be able to:

1. Demonstrate the advantages of aluminum fenestration in achieving performance grades, durability, and longevity.
2. Show the salient points of the four FGIA performance grades for fenestration products and describe the intended applications (or uses) for each of them.
3. Describe the advantages of thermal break systems and how they contribute to improving energy performance and product durability.
4. Explain the sustainability aspects of using aluminum in fenestration products.

Prerequisites: None

Instructional Delivery Method: The CES facilitator utilizes a PowerPoint presentation to provide an in-depth overview of the Advantages of Aluminum Windows and Doors in Commercial Construction. It will be an interactive session that encourages feedback and questions.

A/V Needs: Electrical power and screen for the PowerPoint slide or presentation. The CES facilitator can supply the laptop and projector or utilize your facility's projector and screen.

Target Audience: The intended audience can include designers, architects, engineers, customers, and contractors, as well as end users such as property owners and residents.

Facilitator Qualifications: All Wojan CES facilitators have been trained on CES guidelines and presentation skills. In addition, they receive continuous in-depth training in the field and are considered industry experts.

Costs: There is no cost to bring this program into your firm or chapter.
